

Our nation's economy is based on free enterprise and open competition. Why then would the FCC, particularly under a Republican administration, vote to reduce competition in the broadcast industry and allow monopolies to prosper at the expense of smaller entrepreneurs and the public at large? Please keep the current rule in place. Thank you.